- A 21-hour coaching minor will be added to the degree program as a non-certification option in the PETE degree program and for those outside of the Department of Health and Kinesiology with and interest in coaching.

Rationale: The coaching minor will supply content expertise to those who wish to coach in either public or private settings. Not all PETE majors will be working in public schools a variety of private jobs are available that do not require a state license, this option will be available for those wishing to pursue such positions.

The Coaching minor will include three new courses to cover content

Addition of Minor in Coaching

Explanation

The Department of Health and Kinesiology now offers a minor in Coaching. The Department received request from other majors demonstrating a need for a minor in Coaching. Interdisciplinary studies students and others who are pursuing secondary teaching positions often do so with the desire to coach sports. The Coaching minor was built to service this need.

This action will:

- 1) Allow students in the Kinesiology degree (PETE) program to have a non-certification option.
- 2) Support recruitment of students outside of Health and Kinesiology who have an interest in coaching,
- 3) Increase the content area expertise of those wishing to coach.
